PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Civic Service of Women's Club Reviewed on Eve of Final Meeting

The closing luncheon of the Women's Community Club of Narberth, to be held Tuesday, at 12:30 P. M. in the community building, closes another chapter in the club's twenty-two continued years of service to the community.

Federated in 1916 with about 75 members, the club was soon plunged into war work. The five years under the first two presidents, Mrs. William Cameron and Mrs. C. P. Fowler, are crowded with activities such as kitchen canning, war gardens, curb markets for extra vegetables grown, Red Cross work, adoption of a French orphan, a soup kitchen during the influenza epidemic, and Liberty Loan drives.

Narberth's present library began in Mrs. E. C. Batchelor's presidency in 1921, sponsored by the Reading Circle of the club, with eighteen books on the window sill of Mrs. Robert Fellows Wood's home. Mrs. Wood, who was chairman of the Circle, superintended its rapid growth through volunteer workers, through its establishment in the community building in 1925, and until 1929, when the borough recognized it and appropriated salaries for librarians.

A well-known club chorus and a membership peak of over 200 marked the presidency of Mrs. A. B. Ross in 1922 to 1924. Mrs. Ross will dedicate the tree to be planted in Memoriam Tuesday, for club members who have passed away. The club chorus, inactive since 1924, was again established this year and will sing at the luncheon under the direction of Mrs. W. R. Giles.

A building lot, which the club still owns, was purchased in 1926, in the presidency of Mrs. L. C. Douglas. That same year the Parent Teacher's Association was begun by the club, and became an independent organization at the close of the year.

The Child Health Center, started

Physician, Editor

Tell Life Stories (Short-Short) to Rotarians

Dr. Charles L. Deardorff, Levering Mill and State roads, Cynwyd, and Tom Elwood, Narberth newspaper publisher, were the featured new-member speakers at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club.

The physician, born 1899 in Jeddo, the son of a physician, told briefly of his 21 years at school, including University of Pennsylvania and Jefferson; interned for two years at Jefferson; had his career broken temporarily during the war when he served in the Navy at the age of 19; has practiced in Bala-Cynwyd for eight years.

The writer, born October 7, 1903 in Philadelphia, was graduated from Atlantic City High School and attended the University of Pennsylvania; studied psychology and sociology; edited the News of Bala-Cynwyd until 1937; has for chief claim to fame the winning of a $1000 prize in a Readers Digest essay contest; favorite sports, tennis and swimming; hobbies, singing, and humanity.

So short were both talks, a round-table discussion filled in the remaining time. It became a discussion of politics, whose result was the decision to avoid, hereafter, a discussion of politics.

Next Tuesday's program is in charge of J. Bedford Wooley.

Regarding Sidewalks

Notices to owners of property requiring the repair of sidewalks and curbs will be sent as soon as various properties are inspected, according to Walter A. Fox, chairman, Highway and Sewer Committee, of Borough Council.

It is understood that borough authorities are being just as lenient in their inspection as is consistent with public safety. Property owners are asked to co-operate with the borough in this necessary work, even anticipating mandatory notice by having obvious conditions corrected before inspection.

Windsor avenue from Essex to Iona and Haverford avenue, from Narberth to Montgomery are on the repaving program. Curbs and sidewalk repairs on these two streets are, therefore, of especial importance.

Air Mail Week

Proclamation is Issued by the Burgess

"Among the many services enjoyed by our community, none plays a more essential part than that of the Postal Service."

"In recognition of the fine and loyal service rendered by our local post office, I take pleasure in announcing that the Borough of Narberth will co-operate in the celebration of National Air Mail Week, May 15 to 21, 1938."

"A half holiday for the borough has been declared for the afternoon of May 19, when it is anticipated a mail plane will land on the Shortridge estate (Wynnewood road) to take on air mail from this and other Eastern Main Line offices."

"I urge all citizens of Narberth to send at least one Air Mail letter that week. A specially designed Narberth cachet will give special interest to such letters sent that week. Joseph Kelley, postmaster for Narberth, has arranged a fine week for Narberth and Narberth will continue its tradition of progressive co-operation."

"FRANK A. SCHREFFER, 'Burgess.'"

Bean's history of Montgomery County states that the General Anthony Wayne Inn, built in 1704, was, probably prior to 1851, the local post office. Before that time, the post office for this section outside of Philadelphia was at King of Prussia, previously known as Reeseville.

Rally for James

Tomorrow Night at Norristown by County G. O. P.

On the last lap of his triumphant swing through Pennsylvania, Superior Court Judge Arthur H. James, the candidate of Republican regulars for Governor, will invade Montgomery county on Saturday.

Climaxing his visit to the County, which rolled up the largest G. O. P. majority of any County in the State last year, will be a county-wide rally in the Garrick Theatre, Norristown, at 8 P. M., on Saturday (Daylight Saving Time).

Prior to the mass meeting, which it is expected will be attended by an audience which will tax the capacity of the playhouse, Judge James will be the honor guest at a buffet supper in the Valley Forge Hotel, Norristown.

This supper at 6 P. M. (D.S.T.) was arranged for the members of the Republican County Committee at the behest of Judge James who expressed a desire to meet personally every member of the committee in the 191 districts of the County.

Earlier on Saturday, Judge James, according to the plans of Republican leaders, will head a motor cavalcade through the County.

The rally will be opened by Peter C. Hess, veteran Main Line leader and chairman of the James-for-Governor committee in the County.

After introductory remarks, he will turn the gavel over to Mrs. John Y.

Significant and Encouraging Trend Seen in Candidacy of Arthur Cooke

Two Grass Fires.

One at McDonagh's Mill and Old Gulph roads, Penn Valley, 2:35 P. M., Saturday, the other on the south side of Merion Station, 1:20 P. M., Tuesday, were extinguished by the Narberth Fire Company.

Incinerator Site

Hearing and Zoning Amendment to Go Before Court

A group of Penn Valley citizens this week started further litigation to block the erection of an incinerator on the township's 30-acre tract at the edge of that section and in West Manayunk.

Filed by Aaron S. Swartz, Jr., Norristown attorney, the new bill in equity seeks to have declared invalid the amendment to the zoning ordinance which would permit the township to erect a building anywhere in Lower Merion without regard to the zoning of the section.

Secondly, it seeks to have the Board of Commissioners enjoined from holding a public hearing, May 18, on the question of placing the incinerator on the proposed site.

Next Friday has been set by the Montgomery County Court for a preliminary hearing on the new bill.

Signing the petition to the Court are C. Brooke Jones, Commissioner from the West Manayunk district, Percival Roberts, Jr., Eugene Jordan, vice president of the Penn Valley Association, Gay Croyle, H. W. Madara, Germaine L. Lentz, Earl G. Wagner and Sarah L. Bussinger.

While the amendment, passed April 20, has nothing to do with the incinerator question directly, according to Julius Ziege, president of the Board of Commissioners, Mr. Swartz maintains that the amendment never would have been considered were it not for the difficulty in finding an incinerator site agreeable to all.

The new bill holds that the amendment to the zoning ordinance is unconstitutional and "was not within the power of the said Commissioners to enact."

It further maintains that the ordinance amounts "to a blanket exception of municipal property from the regulations which apply to private property."

Seven of the eight petitioners (Mr. Jordan is the exception) are plaintiffs in the suit still pending which seeks to prevent the construction of the incinerator on the proposed township site. While the suit itself was dismissed by Judge Harold G. Knight, no decision has been handed down on exceptions to the decision, which were argued before the three common pleas judges en banc.

Final Curtain

Of Players' Season Rung Down to Applause

The Narberth Players closed their season last week with "Big Hearted Herbert," a delicious comedy by Sophie Kerr. It should interest us to know that the producer, Fay Fetterolf, directed this play as her thesis for a Master's Degree. She deserves the degree and we wish her this and further successes in the field of the drama. (We hope her examiner noticed her ingenious arrangement of the stage, her excellent groupings and the extreme ease of the business, called-for and created.)

First honors in acting go unquestionably to Blanche Hongler and J. Bedford Wooley for really fine performances. Other excellent work was

A Movie Benefit

For Narberth's Active Firemen was given official sanction Monday night by the company's Board of Directors. Proceeds of the benefit to be held at the Narberth Theater on May 16, 17 and 18, will purchase new furniture for the volunteers' clubroom.

The directors chose Richard Blessing as delegate to the State Firemen's Association convention to be held in the fall, and approved the purchase of four new uniforms.

Fire Chief John A. Miller was in chair, due to the absence of Tristan B. duMarais, president.

The fire company will be in the Memorial Day parade.

Friends of Arthur Cooke submitted this news editorial for Our Town; these columns are also, of course, open to Joseph White's supporters.

Arthur L. Cooke is a candidate for the place on the Republican Committee in the First District of Narberth, which was occupied for many years by the late Charles V. Noel. He is being opposed by Joseph P. White, who maintains that somehow or other he is a more Simon-pure Republican and that he has a better "stand-in" with the political big-wigs at Norristown than anyone else. This contest will be decided by the Republican voters of the First District in the primary on the 17th. It must strike many citizens as being peculiar that there are frequently contests for those positions that are always printed down at the bottom of the ballot and that are frequently ignored entirely by the average citizen when he is doing his voting. The reasons back of the present Cooke-White contest are of significance to all of the citizens of Narberth, regardless of their party affiliations and regardless of whether they vote in the First District.

Mr. Cooke's candidacy represents an attempt on the part of thoughtful citizens to prevent the development in Narberth of a situation which has prevailed in many other communities. That is, there are usually two distinctly different attitudes toward public and party offices. One is the attitude of the citizen who is glad to serve the community or the party without any thought of personal advantage, pecuniary or otherwise. The other is the attitude of the person who enters political activities "for what there is in it," as the saying is.

The citizens of Narberth have always been quite particular in scrutinizing and selecting the candidates for all the elected offices in the Borough Government and the School Board, and those positions are almost invariably filled with people who are willing to serve the community without compensation and without thought of personal advantage. The same has usually been true of the membership of the Party Committee and Mr. Cooke's candidacy has been advanced

Narberth's Softball

Team was in second place in the league thanks to a surprise one-run victory Tuesday evening over the Merion Fire Company of Ardmore. The locals shared second honors with St. Mary's with two victories and one defeat each. Preston, Ardmore, American Legion and Brookline are tied for first. Last night's games are quite likely to have changed the standings.

First Dogwood

Planted on County Trail by Narberth Club

The Women's Community Club of Narberth had the honor of planting the first dogwood tree in Montgomery County along the George Washington Memorial Trail, which runs from Valley Forge to Washington's Crossing, at Norristown, last Friday.

Sixteen members of the Norristown Garden Club joined the Narberth Club members for the tree planting ceremony, on the grounds of the Norristown Water Works. Mrs. E. W. Heymann, Narberth Club president, dug the first spadeful of earth, and, under the supervision of Adolf Muller, president of the Montgomery County Dogwood Association, a pink dogwood was planted. The money for the tree was made by the Conservation Committee, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, chairman, from the sale of dogwood at the April 19 club meeting. In appreciation of the club's interest, the Water Works company planted two white dogwood beside their tree.

President—With Spade

The 26 Narberth Club members were on their way home from a day at the Bowman Hill Wildflower preservation, a trip planned by the Conservation Committee. They were shown over the various flower trails by Mrs. B. H. Tinsman, of Lumberville, chairman of the Bowman Hill Committee.

Around the Town

Great stuff, having a landscape specialist for Burgess. . . . The Community Building's arboreal face has been lifted and replaced with a new outlook entirely. Helpful to the hurried, is a straight pavement to the library door, under the less-low-hanging trees. James Cole has done a nice job of painting the exterior, and the inside, also, will be brightened.

The Narberth Girls' Club will hold a Sports Dance on Saturday, May 7th at the Legion Room, 8:30 to 12. Popular recordings. Admission twenty-five cents couple or stag.

The Augustinians have a Mission at St. Margaret's this week for women and next week for men.

Publicity chairman of the Women's Community Club reported the club's Press Book had won an award for the second time this year. Modestly, she omitted her name—Mrs. F. N. Floyd, Brook way, Merion.

Town & Township

Dear Mr. Elwood:

As president of the Women's Community Club of Narberth, I am interested in the civic and business betterment of Narberth, and I believe this can be furthered by your plan to enlarge the area covered by OUR TOWN to include the Eastern Main Line.

I know that our club members appreciate the amount of space you have given to club news in the past, and can see the possibilities of a larger paper both for local news and more extended advertising. Narberth will still have its home paper, with the added opportunity of exchanging news with neighboring towns.

Wishing you success in your new plan, I am

Very truly yours,
Mrs. E. W. HEYMANN,
President,
Women's Community Club of Narberth.

May I wish you every success in your new venture with "Town and Township?" Surely there is a real promise in an undertaking in which there is the spirit of adventure and the motive of greater service to the community!

Dear Mr. Elwood:

The bigger and better town paper which is now in prospect deserves not only the gratitude but the solid support of the public-spirited citizens of Narberth and its friendly neighbors roundabout. This remarkable community is full of interesting enterprises and ideas that need a voice reaching beyond our narrow borders. "Town and Township" will accomplish what "Our Town" has attempted valiantly but in vain.

Sincerely,
Kenneth L. M. Pray

Is Your Child Safe From Diphtheria?

Who needs protection against diphtheria? Eighty per cent of diphtheria deaths occur in those under five years old. Most of the deaths are in two-year-olds. Your babies are in danger. They need not come in contact with children having diphtheria in order to catch the disease; a healthy child or an adult, possibly even an animal pet, may carry in his throat the deadly germs which can infect your child.

Protect your babies. Every child that has passed the age of six months should be given the treatment which will make it safe from diphtheria. See your family doctor at once. The treatment is not expensive. If you cannot afford to go to a doctor, take your child, if under school age, to the nearest Health Centre of the Community Health and Civic Association. These Centres are located at:

25 East Athens avenue, Ardmore, Tuesday and Thursday, from 2 to 3 P. M. Bryn Mawr Memorial Grounds, Tuesday and Friday, from 2 to 3 P. M.

done by Richard Graham, Myrtle Hager, Philip Reger, Beatrice Carver and Benjamin F. Ricker. All these were new members this season and promise much for the future productions of the Players.

It would have been a joy to see J. Bedford Wooley, Jr., play Robert Kallibess, but Robert Wells was so completely the young boy that the audience was called on to make no allowances for the fact that he took the part on forty-eight hours notice. It was a remarkable substitution performance.

George McAllister, Mary Muller, Matthew Callahan, Bessie McAllister and Katherine Slee did small part very well.

Two suggestions may be made in reviewing the production. The second act gave another example of the extreme difficulty of "climax" scenes. The interplay and dialogue of two or three characters were well handled, but the increase of the number to ten almost failed. The players must watch for these scenes and give more attention to mass reactions. It is the hate most of the amateur! Some of the characters failed to provide the proper contrasts for Herbert Kallibess and the adequate explanation of his reactions and replies. Once or twice he had nothing to which to respond. Thus, when the big moments came, they gave disconnected scenes rather than a total impression-picture.

The second suggestion is with regard to the repertoire. For the next season, would it not be better to include some plays that are not what might be called "recent Broadway successes?"

At the close of the season it is well for us to remember those little known men and women, like Roger Barnes, who have given so much time and attention to the unsuspected details involved in producing the plays.

We anticipate a fine season of '38 and '39.

Bergen's Dummy at Narberth: "Tom Sawyer" Coming Soon

Here, beauty and rhythm are the featured trio in "Goldwyn Follies" now at the Narberth. Charlie McCarthy exchanges a perfunctory kiss with his boss, Edgar Bergen, the Ritz Brothers and others, while the pulchritudinous Zorina heads the eye-filling attractions.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, "Sally, Irene and Mary," an adaptation of the famous stage musical and starring Alice Faye, will be shown.

Next Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Mark Twain's immortal American classic, "Tom Sawyer," is brought to the screen with Tommy Kelly in the title role.

"The Girl of the Golden West" Playing Now at the Egyptian

"The Girl of the Golden West" is completing its 4 days' run at the Egyptian this week-end. Dramatic and music critics alike have hailed this as the greatest picture of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy.

The season's funniest farce, "Bringing Up Baby," comes to the Egyptian Monday and Tuesday, May 9-10. This is the picture your friends have urged you to see and which reveals a new Katharine Hepburn in a humorous play that will evoke chuckles even from a chronic dyspepsia. Cary Grant makes an excellent co-star.

Heeding the requests of many who want to see Will Rogers, the Egyptian is presenting one of his favorite pictures, "The County Chairman." It shows the American Humorist in one of his most lovable roles.

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" Now at the Suburban Theatre

A star — surrounded by stars! That's Shirley Temple, America's top-ranking star in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

Where the average musical hit has one or two teams of song-smiths, seven star writers were assigned to the film now at the Suburban Theatre.

Raymond Griffith, star of the silent films, was made executive producer.

The star-studded cast includes Randolph Scott, Gloria Stuart, Jack Haley, Phyllis Brooks, Helen Westley, Slim Summerville, Bill Robinson, Alan Dinehart, J. Edward Bromberg, Dixie Dunbar, Paul Hurst, William Demarest, Ruth Gillette, Paul Harvey, Franklin Pangborn, the Raymond Scott Quintet and many more.

Topping off a list of six new song hits by Gordon and Revel, Pollack and Mitchell, Pokrass and Yellon, and Raymond Scott . . . Shirley adds a reprise of all the star songs from her previous starring pictures.

We welcome constructive criticism or suggestions.

The marriage of Miss Jayne Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Stevens, of Haverford avenue, to Mr. Stanley Brooks, took place Wednesday in the rectory of St. Margaret's Church, Narberth. Father Brown officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over satin. Her veil of tulle was suspended from a cap of old family lace. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Patricia Stevens, who acted as maid of honor for her sister, wore a frock of peach chiffon, a hat of pale blue and matching slippers. She had a shower bouquet of pink snapdragon and delphinium.

Mr. Donald Brooks acted as best man for his brother.

Haverford averages in a few weeks has given preventative treatment to an average of fifteen children of pre-school age every Wednesday afternoon since it began. Thirty-three children were given the Schick test there recently in connection with the anti-diphtheria drive. The Center is supported by the club and the Borough of Narberth.

A group of club members invited one of the men of the community to take part in a play they were giving, under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Frye, at Christmas time in 1931. The group became so enthusiastic that in 1932 the Plays and Players was formed, with the late W. Russell Green as first president.

Since 1932 the club has been a member of the Picture Circulating Club of the Philadelphia Art Alliance. A picture is chosen once a month by the Art chairman and hung in the library except for the time the club meets, when it is displayed in the club room.

Outstanding among the club achievements this year are 78 new members, under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. B. Hoskins; a Salvation Army drive which went over the top in Narberth and nowhere else on the Main Line, chairmanned by Mrs. H. Harold C. Fenn; Mrs. Roland Page, F. ## The Political Pot by those who wish to see that type of service continue to prevail in the borough.

The late Charlie Noel was an outstanding example of the desirable type of committeeman for he served the community without pay, and with distinguished personal self-sacrifice, for more than 25 years as chief of the fire department. It was therefore the desire of thoughtful citizens, not all of them residents of the First District, that a man should be obtained for Mr. Noel's place on the committee who would have a similar attitude toward public service, and Mr. Cooke was requested to run on that basis. He did not seek the opportunity to run. He was persuaded to do so and has taken his stand flatly on the proposition that he had no intention of seeking anything for himself, from Norristown or anywhere else, but that he would endeavor to represent, insofar as a member of the committee can do, the best interests of the people of the borough.

Mr. Cooke is a member of the Board of Health, which is an unsalaried routine job requiring attendance at monthly meetings, and a responsibility for the health conditions of the borough that is constantly being carried on in a way which seldom comes to the attention of any of the citizens, but which is vitally important to the community. He is a long-time resident of Narberth; a veteran of the World War; a past commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion; and for many years has been actively identified with organized work for boys. His entire career is an open book to the people of Narberth.

Mr. White first appeared on the Narberth scene about 15 years ago and acquired business real estate. He has always identified himself with practical politics and with practical, personal contacts with prominent county officials at Norristown, as a result of which he was appointed Borough Assessor immediately after a change in the statutes gave the county authorities the power of appointment and removed from the voters the privilege of electing their own assessor. None of the borough officials at that time was consulted as to whether it would be a good policy to place power over assessed valuations in the hands of the owner of important business real estate. Mr. White now is on the public payroll as a member of the staff of the Democratic auditor general and it is generally believed that among the qualifications that have enabled him to retain that job is the fact that he changed his registration from Republican to non-partisan at the time when all voters were required to reregister under the new law. Mr. White says frankly that he wants to be a committeeman in order to obtain a better job for himself by which he presumably means a better job, if possible, from the Republicans at Norristown, than the one he now holds from the Democrats at Harrisburg.

Those are conservatively stated facts which form the background of the Cooke-White contest for the committee place in the First District, and it is believed by the advocates of Mr. Cooke's candidacy that with those facts clearly known, there can be no doubt as to which of the two men will be considered to be most representative of the Republican voters of the First Narberth District.

Along the Line

Drivers soon must come to a full stop when signs are erected at these intersections: N. Wynnewood avenue where the Narberth underpass intersects on E. Wynnewood road; Bryn Mawr avenue and Levering Mill road, Cynwyd, and at Bryn Mawr avenue and Manayunk road, Penn Valley.

Motorists who last Sunday drove to Valley Forge to see the dogwood in blossom, saw more automobiles than flowering trees. The park had one of its worst traffic tie-ups in the last two years, according to Gilbert S. Jones, superintendent.

Time Out

Lower Merion's most able opponents in the baseball field are Haverford, Upper Darby, Norristown and Abington. Those of these teams have been met and the Maroon nine has won one and dropped two.

Abington took the first decision in a beautifully played game, 1 to 0. Upper Darby came next and after a bad inning, lost 10 to 9. Haverford came to Pennypacker Field last Monday afternoon and though they had a real bad inning, they managed to win out 8 to 6. This victory for the South Ardmore boys was due to timely hitting and smart base running.

Norristown will be the next opponent in a game to be played at Norristown this week. Unless the local boys improve in all around play they are likely to lose to the Blue and White, because the up-County team is always hard to beat.

Quinton Maxwell, Cynwyd right hander, twirled a three-hit game for the Junior High School against Haverford in High Tuesday afternoon, but sloppy support by the infield lost the game to the visitors 5 to 0. The Little Fords did not score an earned run, but five unearned tallies count just as much as those of an earned variety. The Leopards meet Rittenhouse on Pennypacker Field this afternoon. Bob Fleck, 190 pound left-hander, will twirl for the Orange and Black.

The track squad will have an opportunity to show their real strength tomorrow at Ursinus in an invitation meet with some of the strongest high school track squads in this section of the state. Norristown will be represented at this meet also, and it will be possible to make some estimate of the relative strength of the two squads. Norristown has been king-pin in the suburbs for the past few years and there is a great deal of interest in the rivalry between the Eagles and the Bulldogs.

Two compositions by Bruce C. Beach, head of the music department of Lower Merion Senior High School, were played at the Philadelphia Art Alliance at Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, Tuesday night.

The chief comedy role of "Jack Point the Jester" will be filled by Perdue Cleaver, accomplished Gilbert and Sullivan actor. Miss Ruth Brall will appear as "Dame Carruthers," Harry Rudy as "Wilfred Shadbolt," Stanley Zeman as "Sergeant Meryll," Charles Conner as "Sir Richard Cholmondeley," Mrs. Edna Moore Greulich as "Phoebe," Wilson Donahue as "Leonard Meryll," Miss Ethel MacBride as "Kate," William Wren as First Yeoman, William Tuttle as Second Citizen, Arthur McVickar as Second Citizen, and Arthur Tuttle as Headman.
